Dewey's Going May

Signal Switch in Republican Policy

Paragraph
My friend Edgar G. Harris of West Point (Miss.) Times Leader reports: "A Missouri man recently arrested for operating a moonshine still contends that he was merely experimenting on the development of another secret weapon."

That's swallowing a whole lot.

Thomas E. Dewey has announced that he won't be a candidate for re-election to the governorship of New York.

From his statement as carried by the Associated Press wire in Saturday's Star you would judge he is taking himself out of politics completely, at least in the role of a candidate. That is, the man who ran for president in 1944, and again in 1948, won't be in the race when 1952 rolls around.

This is a good thing. Roosevelt certainly beat Dewey in 1944, and that was the year I bolted the party and threw my vote away by casting it for Dewey simply because many an American distrusts any man who, like Roosevelt, made it his business to cut off promising Democrats so he would continue to appear indispensable to the national party.

And yet the Dewey campaign was so strangely handled four years later, in 1948, that I, who had voted for him once, couldn't do it again.

I believe Dewey could have been president in that 1948 election — but his campaign reflected the fact that a board of political strategy was calling his shots, not the candidate himself.

Dewey at the wrong moment of his life let someone else tell him what to say. Truman, when everyone else figured he was whipped, threw the book away and went out on the stump and "just told 'em."

It elected Dewey, and it finished Dewey.

And now it's up to the Republican party to find another candidate and a different board of strategy. Which is a good thing. Maybe the shakeup will do something for the Party of the Opposition.

You don't have to be a Republican to wish that. It's the wish of every honest Democrat and Independent voter as well.

For without a powerful and conscientious Opposition Party you won't have much government in Washington, regardless what the party label is.

Look at the miserable record the Republicans wrote from 1920 to 1932 when the Democrats were so few they were hiding under rocks to keep from being stepped on.

Hard campaigning and close elections make for good government.

And it will never be different in a self-governing country.

Damage Heavy in Section of Ohio

Crooksville, O., June 19 —(AP)— Damage caused by a flash flood that made hundreds jobless and homeless in six southeastern Ohio communities still was being uncovered today.

Best estimated place total damage caused by flood at more than $7,000,000, but the exact figure probably will not be known before the week is out.

One business block in nearby Roseville was condemned last night after it was found the waters had weakened walls of a dozen business establishments. Some 40 persons also made their homes in the area.

Also in Roseville, the famous "Potter's Alley" which is noted for its artware and novelty ceramic pieces was in ruins. A spokesman for the small concerns said that the flood may mean the end of business for some.

Compromise on Extension of Rent Control

Washington, June 19 —(AP)— Senate and house conferees agreed today on a compromise bill extending federal rent controls for six months beyond June 30.

The compromise, subject to approval by both chambers of congress, give municipalities power to keep the federal controls for an additional six months, or until June 30, 1951. In communities where no such action is taken, controls would end automatically on December 31.

The house had voted for an automatic seven-months extension, with an additional five months optional. The senate wanted a six-month automatic extension, with six more optional months.

The conferees accepted a house provision giving counties the right to remove controls before December 31 in incorporated areas. Cities already have that authority.

Senate Groups Approve Arms Aid Funds

Washington, June 19 —(AP)— Two senate committees formally approved a $122,500,000 foreign arms program today but refused to dip into European recovery funds for part of the cost.

The foreign relations and armed services committee voted 12 to 0 to continue for a second year the program to re-arm non-Communist nations.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the foreign relations group said he would try to get a senate vote on the measure next Thursday if possible.

The senators agreed to limit President Truman's power to give arms aid to nations outside the North Atlantic pact.

As the measure was originally drafted, Mr. Truman would have had authority to re-arm any nation if he deemed it in the interest of American security. The revised bill limits this aid to Western Europe.

Senator Lodge (R-Mass) sought to pin an amendment on the bill which would have diverted $100,000,000 of European recovery funds to the arms program but Connally said this was rejected by a strong vote.

"The main objection," he said, "was that we didn't want to scramble up the Marshall plan and the arms plan."

Youth Victim of Lost Month in Reno Bars

Reno, Nev., June 19 —(AP)— The hero of a flaming plane crash and a five day trek across sun parched Nevada desert? Gosh, no, confessed chagrined Allan Lee Pearce, 23, of Oklahoma City, he was the victim of a "lost month" in Reno bars.

All started, he related from a call in the county jail, when an Oklahoma city brunet—whom he refused to identify—refused to get out of bed to keep a date.

Many drinks later an about $400 poorer, Pearce was picked up Saturday night by Deputy Sheriff Stanley Power of Fernie wandering in the desert, 60 miles northeast of Reno.

He gasped out a story of a flaming plane crash on a flight from Seattle to Albuquerque, N. M., and of five tortuous days walking in the sun-parched desert. At that time he identified himself as John E. Chenau, 24, of Austin, Texas.

"What can they do to a guy for lying," he asked.

Police were noncommittal but they booked him in a holding charge—investigation of airplane theft.

Authorities began checking in San Diego where Pearce said his mother, Mrs. Wanda Merle Pearce lived. He wouldn't give her street address. At first he had "she" was Mrs. Wanda Chenau, living at 216 E. Street, Aurora, Texas.

Why the cock and bull story about the plane crash? Well said Pearce whose wanderings took him into Canada, "I didn't want my relatives to hear about my situation."

Bookie Czar Enters Plea of Guilty

New York, June 19 —(AP)— Frank Erickson, boss of a nationwide, multi-million-dollar bookmaking empire, pleaded guilty today to gambling charges that could send him to prison for 60 years.

The pudgy gambling czar, who never spent a day in jail in his life, entered the plea as he was brought into Special Sessions court for trial.

Reports circulated that Erickson made the guilty plea to protect wealthy, big-money bettors.

District Attorney Frank Hogan said he would demand "the stiffest sentence" possible when Erickson returned to court Monday for sentencing.

The 51-year old gambler who admittedly netted $100,000 profits annually from his coast-to-coast gambling operations, is subject to a maximum penalty of one year in jail and a $500 in fine on each count of a 60-count indictment, or a total of 60 years and $30,000.

His attorney, Sol Gelb, told Justice Nathan B. Perlman that the defendant wished to withdraw his innocent plea, and plead guilty to the one count of conspiracy and 59 counts of bookmaking.

The plump, balding defendant, dressed in a dark blue suit with white pencil stripes and a light grey tie, stood beside the defense table, as his attorney entered the plea.

Erickson was continued in $10,000 bail.

After Gelb entered the plea, the judge turned to Erickson and asked: "Does the defendant plead guilty to each of the 60 counts?"

"Yes," Erickson replied. His fingers pressed hard against the table top, but his face appeared without emotion.

Today's World Is All Out of Shape and So Are 8 Out of Ten American Women

By HAL BOYLE

New York —(AP)— The world is out of shape today — and so are more than eight out of 10 American women.

This melancholy statistic isn't based on one man's ravine observation. It comes from the corset and brassiere association of America.

"Of the 55,000,000 U. S. women above the age of 15, at least 85 per cent are overweight, or lack symmetry in the vicinity of bosoms, waist or hips," said Fletcher D. Dodge, executive vice president of the association.

What depresses me about this estimate is that Fletcher doesn't even include the women with jutted jaws, knobby knees, bowed legs, suitcase feet, or blacksmith'siceps.

No, all he surveys is the corset zone. To correct nature's errors in this area the women of America in 1950 will spend $400,000,000 or more for girdles, pantie girdles, brassieres, bandeaus, corsets, corselettes, falsies and garter belts.

Every year about this time — the opening of National Corset Market week — Fletcher reviews the status of the American feminine shape. He is a stern critic and invariably finds something wrong with it.

Here girls, is his prediction of the fashionable figure for this autumn:

"An even slimmer, narrower hips. . . . Waistline slightly less indented. . . . Bustline most softly rounded. . . ."

And what about falsies? "More and more women will be wearing them," Dodge said flatly. "As one designer in the foundation garment industry points out,

Accused Newsman Denies Fighting Alongside Reds

Paris, June 19 —(AP)— Newspaperman Andrew Roth, a former navy lieutenant who was described in a senate inquiry hearing June 6 as "now fighting with Communist forces in Indochina," said in Paris today he has not been in Indochina in a year.

Emmanuel Larson, who was arrested and fined in 1945 in the famous "Amerasia" case involving the theft and sale of secret documents, testified before a senate committee that Roth was the "principal conspirator" in the case.

"Larson's statement that I am now fighting with the Communists in Indochina has about the same relation to the truth that the rest of his testimony has," Roth said in an interview today.

Roth said he has recently spent several months in Israel, North Africa and Europe, and is now engaged in writing magazine articles on world affairs.

Mac Arthur Outlines Asia Defense

By RUSSELL BRINES

Tokyo, June 19 —(AP)— General MacArthur today outlined America's defense position in Red-menaced Asia for Defense Secretary Johnson and General Bradley. He reportedly called it serious but not hopeless.

The commander of United States forces in the Far East, it was understood, also urged prompt American materiel assistance to Formosa, last - stand bastion of the Chinese nationalists, and for southeast Asia.

Military aspects of a Japanese peace treaty also were believed under discussion in the momentous three-hour conference with the secretary and the chairman of the U. S. Joint Chiefs of Staff.

What would involve the vital matter of American bases in Japan.

The talks here are expected to lay the foundation for decisions in Washington on far eastern policy.

One informed Japanese source said the Johnson-Bradley visit is being watched with "the greatest anticipation ever placed on any mission from the United States."

Efforts are being increased to reach agreement among Japanese political leaders on the question of future American bases.

Prime Minister Shigeru Yoshida hopes to get all parties to a peace treaty — to support a peace treaty with the western powers and continued American use of bases here.

All opposition parties came out in the June 6 elections for strict "neutrality" and no foreign military installations in Japan.

Both MacArthur's headquarters and Johnson himself have made it plain the defense secretary is only secondarily interested in the political aspects of a treaty.

Col. M. P. Echols, headquarters public information officer, said today Johnson's primary concern is the far eastern command side of MacArthur's dual job.

GOP Divided on Charges by McCarthy

By JACK BELL

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., June 19 —(AP)— Top flight Republican governors appeared divided today over the effect on their party's political fortunes of what some of them called "McCarthyism."

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York told reporter he has a "mixed" reaction to broadside charges by Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that the state department is harboring communists. He didn't elaborate publicly.

Gov. Earl Warren of California, running for a third term, lined himself up solidly against what he called the "blanket accusations" made by the Wisconsin senator.

Warren said he thinks McCarthy speaks only for himself — and not the Republican party — in making charges for which the California governor said not enough supporting evidence had been produced.

Gov. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania, running for the senate, used almost the same words in condemning what he labelled McCarthy's "random, blanket charges without specific date to back them up."

All three governors aired their views at meetings with reporters at the annual governors conference, swinging into business sessions here today.

Warren pooh-poohed the idea that communism charges will play any part in his campaign against James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President and Democratic nominee for governor of California.

Mishaps Bring Death to 3 in Arkansas

At least two persons drowned and another died in a traffic accident in Arkansas over the weekend.

Another, Joe Howe, 33, Hot Springs theater co-owner, is missing after going fishing alone and is believed to have drowned in Lake Hamilton.

Joe Howe reported missing in what is believed to have been a fishing accident on Lake Hamilton, Hot Springs, was a kinsman by marriage of Thompson Evans, Jr., of Hope. Mr. Howe married Violet Sibley, of Conway, cousin of Mr. Evans.

James D. Foster, 43, drowned while swimming alone in a stock pond on his farm northwest of Jonesboro Saturday night. The body was recovered. His widow and two daughters survive.

John Wilburn Page, 32, of Memphis, drowned in a rice canal near Goodwin Sunday. Mrs. Ruby Page said her husband apparently suffered a cramp and sank before help could reach him. The Pages were on a picnic.

John Ellinghausen, 60, of Tulsa, Okla., was killed when his automobile collided with one driven by another Tulsa resident near Siloam Springs Sunday.

Ellinghausen's daughter, Sally Ann, 12, was injured gravely; Mrs. Ellinghausen and occupants of the other car, Morris R. McCarver, driver, and Gene Stuttemyere, all of Tulsa, were injured less seriously.

Ruhr Workers Deal Reds a Crushing Blow

Duesseldorf, Germany, June 19 —(AP)— The miners and steelworkers of the Ruhr valley rejected Russia's policies in Germany and gave communism a crushing defeat at the polls yesterday.

But while they rejected communism, the same workers voted for a state constitution calling for socialization of the Ruhr's basic industries.

The Ruhr workers elected a legislature for their home state of North-Westphalia in the British occupation zone. It is the most populous state of West Germany, with 9,000,000 registered voters.

The smoky Ruhr powerhouses once was West Germany's Communist stronghold. Three years ago, the Communists got 11 per cent of the vote. They were the third largest party in the state.

Yesterday, they got 5.5 per cent, and went into fifth place. Max Reimann, their leader, trailed badly in Dortmund.

Thousands of workers who had voted Communist before turned their backs on Russia and blasted Communist hopes of winning the Ruhr away from the West.

They apparently spoke for all of West Germany's 48,000,000 people who condemn Russian policies in East Germany.

At the same time, the north Rhine-Westphalian so voters also showed they have no love for the surging German nationalism. The Communist candidates, however, got only 1.9 per cent of the ballots. Extremism, both of left and right, was rejected.

The voters turned instead to their traditional parties — the Conservative Christian Democrats and the Socialists (Social Democratic Party).

By a quirk of local politics, the Conservative voters were responsible for approval of a constitutional calling for socialization. They opposed the socialization, however, because of the economic burden it would place on the school system.

The exact nature and extent of possible socialization is not clear in the constitution. It speaks of "large factories of the basic industries and undertakings, which because of their monopolistic position have special significance."

It is possible socialization of these industries may not be effected until after the next elections three years from now — despite the constitution.

This is because of the strength gained in the legislature by Conservative and right-wing parties which generally oppose socialization.

With final provisional returns Christian Democrats and the right-wing free Democratic party had 21 seats in the 217-man legislature, winning 49 per cent of the popular vote.

After police and photographers tried, two husky men were able to out-pull "the devil."

Full Report on Amerasia Case Studied

Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Attorney General McGrath said today the justice department will decide soon whether to make public a full report on the 1945 Amerasia case as recommended by a federal grand jury.

McGrath's comment to a reporter came after a weekend bristling with new developments involving the charges of Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) that the state department harbors Communists and Communist sympathizers.

A key part of those charges, McCarthy has said, concerns the five-year-old episode in which six persons were arrested after the FBI had found hundreds of secret government documents in the offices of the now defunct magazine Amerasia.

These were the developments: 1. Three more Republicans joined those party members who have criticized McCarthy's methods in attacking the state department. The three-governors Earl Warren of California and James H. Duff of Pennsylvania, and Senator Bridges of New Hampshire — also had some criticism of the Communist-in-government issue.

2. An official transcript of testimony taken by the senate committee investigating McCarthy's charges showed that Amerasia defendant Emmanuel S. Larsen spoke of former navy Lieut. Andrew Roth as a "real Communist" and "the principal conspirator" in the case. Both men were among the six persons arrested in the case; Larsen and Amerasia Editor Philip Jaffe were fined; Roth and the other three never were brought to trial.

3. McCarthy demanded that the senate inquiry group open its doors to the public when it takes testimony Thursday from State Department Consul General Official John S. Service — another of the six accused in the Amerasia episode five years ago. The committee plans to hear Service, as it has other Amerasia witnesses, behind closed doors.

4. The state department accused Robert Hamilton, Driving without owner's consent. Dismissed on the motion city attorney.

Woodrow Williams Possessing untaxed beer, dismissed on motion city attorney.

C. R. Norris, overload forfeited $25 cash bond.

O. G. Johnson, No driver's license, forfeited $5 cash bond.

Owen Neal, possessing untaxed intoxicating liquor, plea guilty, fined $50

Latin Nations Worried Over Coffee Prices

Washington, June 19.—(AP)—Envoys from 14 Latin American countries told Secretary of State Acheson today that the proposals made by a senate subcommittee which investigated the rise in coffee prices seriously threaten Latin American economy. Eleven ambassadors and three charges d'affaires, calling on the secretary in a body, presented a sharp 1,300-word statement on the report of the subcommittee headed by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa).

The senate group charged that speculators profited in last fall's sudden coffee price boom. It suggested a watch on activities of an international coffee commission on which this country is represented along with Latin American nations, to head off any anti-trust law violations. It suggested technical aid to "other friendly nations" seeking to increase coffee output.

The statement presented to Acheson called the last proposal "most unfriendly."

With reference to the report in general, the Latin Americans said: "And in its entirety the report

McCarthy of "deliberate distortion of the public record" in saying that Dean Acheson — now secretary of state — had helped create a Red Poland by approving a $90,000,000 loan to that country in 1946.

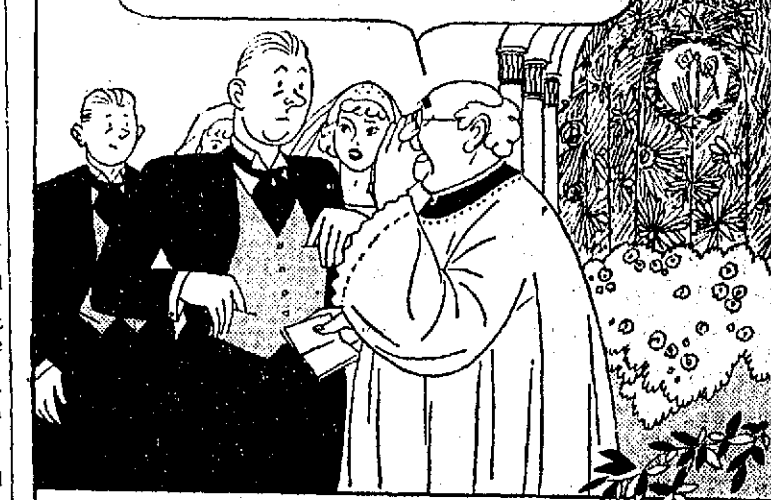

5. Officials disclosed that Cardinal Spellman had sought the meeting he had Friday with Deputy Undersecretary of State John E. Peurifoy — possibly to discuss U. S. representation at the Vatican. Peurifoy denied speculation that he had initiated the meeting so he could ask the Cardinal to "call off" McCarthy.

proposes that the United States government initiate what will amount to economic warfare against the coffee growing nations. The envoys declared, too, that the Gillette committee proposal, if followed, would interfere with Latin American internal affairs and violate the good neighbor policy. They asked assurance that there will be "no adverse change" in U. S. policy toward their countries.

Beating Boston Gives Tigers Title Chance

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
 "If we could only beat Boston
 we might have a chance."

This was Manager Red Rolf's stock answer to spring queries regarding Detroit's pennant chances for 1950.

Rolf knew what he was talking about. His Tigers won only seven games from the Red Sox in 1949 while losing 15. They finished fourth, 10 games behind the New York Yankees.

The Tigers have met the Red Sox a dozen times this far and have come off with nine victories.
 That is two more than they were able to win from Boston in their entire 1949 season. That, in a nutshell, is the chief reason why the Bengals are leading the rest of the American league by two full games today.

Detroit made it nine triumphs in the last 10 games yesterday—the sixth in succession over the Red Sox—by trouncing Boston, 19-2.
 Art Houtteman went all the way for his eighth victory. He allowed seven hits, but two of them were homers by Ted Williams and Vern Stephens to account for Boston's runs.

Despite the victory, Detroit's first place margin was shaved a half-game by the Yankees, who whipped the St. Louis Browns, 15-7, and 9-0, in both ends of a doubleheader in St. Louis.

Cleveland's Indians ruined "Fathers' day" for Connie Mack, baseball's oldest daddy, by blasting his Philadelphia Athletics twice, 7-0 and 2-2, after Bobby Feller blanked the A's with two hits in the first game, the Indians scored a record 14 runs in the first inning of the nightcap.

Brooklyn's Dodgers climbed to within a half-game of the National league leading St. Louis Cardinals by whipping the Redbirds for the third straight time, 9-0. Philadelphia's third place Phillies moved to within a game and a half of the top, tripping the Cincinnati Reds twice, 4-3 and 4-2.

The Giants trounced the Chicago
 Cubs twice, 6-0 and 10-5, to creep up to within a half game of the fifth place Bruins. Boston's Braves won their sixth straight, defeating Pittsburgh 3-6 in the first game of a doubleheader, the second was called after nine innings on account of darkness and a cur-few law with the score tied at 8-8.
 The game will be replayed tonight.

The scheduled doubleheader between Washington and the White Sox in Chicago was postponed by rain.

Cleveland's 14 runs were the most ever made in the first inning. The previous high was 13 made by the Braves in 1900 and the Giants in 1911. The A's held the American league mark of 12, set in 1937. Three other clubs since 1900 tallied 14 runs in an inning.

Teller won his sixth game in the opener. A single by Wally Moses in the first and another in-nagger by Mike Guerra in the eighth were the only hits off the former strikeout king. Mike Garcia won his fifth in the finale.

Tommy Byrne won his eighth game, helping his own cause with
 p. m. Chance Of Lifetime; 3 Surprise Package.
 MBS—10:30 a. m. Say It With Music; 12:45 p. m. The Jamboree;

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

By GAYLE TALBOT
 For Hugh Fullerton Jr.
 New York, June 19 —(AP)— Bright summer having finally come to these parts, Joe Cahill of the West Point publicity staff was, naturally enough, talking football.

"Here," he said, "we've lost
 every man except one, Dan Fold-berg, from our offensive line, and there isn't a guard or a center of any description left from last year's first team."

"But do the experts write Army off for next season the way they would any other team that suffered such losses by graduation?
 The answer is no. Army is Army, and they expect us to come up with a top team, no matter what we lose."

Suitable expressions of sympathy were offered. In view of these heavy losses, would it be too much to expect the Cadets to win, say half their games during the coming fall season?

"Oh, I suppose we'll have a pretty fair team," Joe conceded.
 "I guess you might say that we'll have an offensive line comparable to the one we lost. The defense team should be fully as good.
 Coach (Earl) Blaik will have some nice boys from the plebe team."

It should be mentioned that the plebe eleven Cahill passes over so lightly was the scourge of the day-lights out of every opponent and running up some really spectacular scores.

Its bright, particular star was a fullback from Los Angeles named Al Pollard, who does everything extremely well. There were injured feelings on the West Coast
 when he enrolled at the Point.

It was suggested that Pollard would, of course, step right into the regular fullback berth.
 "Well, no," Cahill said reflectively. "You see, Gil Stephenson will be back to play fullback. It would be too much to expect Pollard to take Gil's place."

Then surely there was some other spot in Army's backfield for a wing-ding such as Pollard, who was, after all, about the greatest prep school star in the land two seasons ago.

"I'm afraid not," Cahill said, finally giving with a faint smile.
 "You see, Jim Cain and Frank Fischl will be around to play the halfbacks again and young Earl (Blaik) will be the regular quarterback. You wouldn't want us to break up that combination, would you?"

No, Joe was assured, not after watching Stephenson, Cain and Fischl operate against Navy last fall.

"What you might like to point out," Cahill said, taking a new tack, "is that we're playing the two teams which a lot of the experts think will meet in the next Rose bowl game—Michigan and Stanford."

"We play Michigan at Yankee stadium on Oct. 14, and you can bet they'll be pointing for us plenty. We've beaten them three straight since the war, and I don't imagine they like that much. The game is certain to be a sellout.
 We'll fly out to play Stanford on Nov. 18."

"What I'm trying to say is that here we've lost practically all our offensive line and yet are playing maybe two of the greatest teams in the country. But does anybody feel sorry for Army? No. They expect us to manage somehow."

We told Joe not to take it so hard and assured him we would make a point of feeling sorry for the Cadets, though stating that it might be an effort on the afternoon they play New Mexico U.

Dave Koslo, helped by homers
 by Wes Westy m and Hanj Thompson, won his sixth game in the nightcap.

Tommy Holmes drove in three runs to lead the Braves to their first game victory over Pittsburgh.

but answered lightly: "Oh, you see enough of me. Go play golf or something."

But the light hurried tone had not allayed his forebodings. Bev was remote, preoccupied, lately.

Mrs. Fasker waggled a venerable head: "But it's no business of mine. Run along! I want to read.
 But remember, I'm on your side."

"Dismissed," Bill wandered off, doggedly pursuing an interrupted thought.

He arrived at something that,
 momentarily, he considered a decision. If he'd done anything to displease Bev, she had a right to tell him so. He started determinedly for the Inn. Thingo to do was yank her out of that confounded game and go into a huddle.

He approached the Inn. The bridge game had just broken up.
 Bev detached herself from the little group around the table, came toward him. On the way she sneezed, suddenly and violently.

HE surveyed her. The small straight nose was pinkish around its nostrils; her black eyes seemed to swim inordinately.

"You've got the beginnings of a cold, kid," Bill said. "What about dinner in bed, aspirin and a hot drink?"

Bev sneezed again. "You might have something, at that."

Mrs. Coulter, when informed, was in unequivocal agreement.
 Bill had his own dinner with the elder Coulters and later accepted Coulter's invitation for a liqueur
 in the bar.

Coulter was silent a space, starting into his amber-colored glass.
 But finally: "Anything the matter with her, Bill?"

"Who, sir?" Bill asked, a little vaguely.

"Bev. Seems to me she's been kind of funny lately. I—well, I'm not quite sure what I do mean."

"I hadn't noticed anything," Bill stretched the truth.

Coulter frowned. Before he could say more, a trio of his friends appeared, claiming him for billiards. Bill finished his drink hastily and excused himself.

Hungary May Soon Release American

Vienna, Austria, June 19 — (AP)—Hungarian American informants said today that Robert A. Vogeler, an American business man jailed in Hungary on spy charges may be released this week.

The informants said Hungarian officials have made no definite promises, but indications are that they may turn Vogeler over to U. S. officials Tuesday or Wednesday.

Vogeler, 39, an executive and living European representative of the International Telephone and Telegraph company, was sentenced to 15 years in a Hungarian prison last year on charges of espionage and sabotage. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 15 years. Vogeler's pretty Belgian-born wife Lucille, was overcome with joy by the reports that her husband might be released.

"This is what I have been waiting for and praying for every day for the last seven months," she said.

Mrs. Vogeler conferred with U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson in London on May 12 when he was there for a big three session, he said. Acheson had given her a "most encouraging message" regarding her husband.

"I can't say more than that," she said at the time. "If I did say too much, harm might be caused. But now I have certain knowledge that something is being done for my husband, and by the highest authorities."

In New York Vogeler's father, Robert A. Vogeler, Sr., who heard radio broadcasts of his son's expected release, said "I couldn't believe my ears."

"I don't want to be pessimistic," said the goateed, retired engineer, "but I'll believe it when I see Bob sitting in that chair before me."

Informants here expressed doubt that Edgar Sanders, British associate of Vogeler, who was sentenced at the same time, will be released at present.

The British government has been negotiating for the release of Sanders, who was sentenced to 13 years. American officials have denied that any deal was made to swap Vogeler for Valentin Gubichev, Soviet United Nations employee, convicted with Judith Coplon in New York of espionage.

Speedy Action on SS Issue Sought

By EDWIN B. HAAKINSON

Washington, June 19 — (AP)—Senate Democratic and Republican leaders teamed up today in an effort to speed passage of an expanded social security program.

Voting on amendments is set to start tomorrow afternoon. In separate interviews, Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois and Senator Taft (R-Ohio), GOP Policy Leader, told a reporter they expect the social security measure to go through in about the form it came from the senate finance committee.

Lucas is pushing for one amendment that would increase the taxable wage base to $3,600 a year. It now is $3,000 with employees and employers each contributing 1-2 per cent of wages up this amount.

Senator George (D-Ga.), finance committee chairman and in charge of the bill, was expected to go along with the Lucas proposal if he and other Democrats would drop other amendments.

The senate bill would add an estimated 10,000,000 persons to the 35,000,000 now covered by the old age and survivors insurance program.

Both it and a similar measure already passed by the house would

Plane Brings 144 to U. S. for Record

San Diego, Calif., June 19 — (AP)—The giant Caroline Mars ended a 2,600-mile flight from Hawaii yesterday with 144 men aboard, never before, the navy said, had so many been carried so far non-stop in one aircraft.

A little later, a sister flying boat, the Hawaii Mars, set off down on San Diego bay with 108 men. She had taken off two hours and five minutes before the Caroline Saturday, flown 2,400 miles to Alameda, Calif., added 5,000 pounds of cargo and then hopped on here.

In these two four-engine craft, which spread their wings 200 feet, the navy had ferried an entire company of marine reservists in full combat kit from the islands for training exercises at nearby Camp Pendleton.

The lift made by the Caroline—which has more powerful engine than the other Mars flying boats—wasn't a world record for passengers. That was made by the Marshall Mars last year. She carried 308 men—but on the short 450-mile hop from Alameda to San Diego.

The Caroline's effort cleanly topped the Hawaii Mars' old Hawaii-California mark made in 1946 with 118 men aboard.

Lt. William Nelson of Augusta, Kan., brought the Caroline over in 14 hours 18 minutes in a flight he described as routine.

"The takeoff was smooth. The ride was smooth. The landing was smooth."

The marines aboard the Caroline weren't too happy for a while, however. They were jammed into the plane's lower deck before the takeoff. It was hot and stuffy. After the craft was airborne, the upper "smoking" deck was opened. Some slept through the night on mattresses spread on the decks.

The Hawaii Mars was commanded by Lt. William Bartley of Calhoun, Ill.

sharply increase monthly benefit payments to aged persons, but the senate committee dropped house provisions for increases in the related old age assistance program.

These are the payments to aged persons and others who qualify on a needs basis rather than under the so-called insurance.

Both Senators George and Millikan (R-Colo.), former finance chairman, are battling for the senate policy of increasing old age insurance coverage and cutting down on the public assistance program, termed a relief or dole by some critics.

Two Republicans Would Oust U. N. Chief Lie

Washington, June 19 — (AP)—Two Republican senators said yesterday Trygve Lie should be ousted as secretary general of the United Nations unless he withdraws his proposal for recognition of Communist China.

In a joint statement, Senators Bridges of New Hampshire and Knowland of California accused Lie of being a tool, if not an actual ally, of the Reds, and called on the administration to sue his discharge if he doesn't stop urging that a Chinese Communist be seated on the U. N. Security Council.

"Lie says, in effect, if Russia will not accept the rules of the U. N., the rules must be changed."

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Hap Thomas "Cleans Up"

It's about a year now since Hap Thomas bought that run-down gas station on River Road. And because the last two owners had gone broke trying to make it pay, folks figured Hap was bound to follow suit. They said so—out loud.

But Hap went right ahead. When he painted the building white (with red shutters and a red door) people called him crazy for wasting his money on a lemon.

He also put in a lawn and planted shrubs. You should have heard the wisecracks laugh then! But Hap didn't pay them any mind, because by this time business was starting to roll in. He's now "cleaning up" with the money-making gas station around here.

From where I sit, fellows like Hap and like Andy, for instance, over at the Garden Tavern, have one secret of success. Andy keeps his tavern clean and bright—in cooperation with the Brewers' Self-Regulation Program. Whether it's a gas station or tavern—good appearances mean good business!
